2022-23 ANNUAL REPORT for the South Australian Medical Education and Training Health Advisory Council

From the Presiding Member, Professor Kevin Forsyth

SA MET, it's Staff, its Council, its Committees, have had a busy and productive year. Being a critical advocate to ensure junior doctor training is of a high standard and fit for purpose underpins all we do. In this regard, I want to thank the many clinical staff who give of their time to supervise and support and educate and train our junior doctors. You do a wonderful job, I am very grateful to you. The staff of SA MET also need special mention. There are not many of them, yet they do their work so expertly and competently, well done team.

What have been the 'big ticket items' for SA MET this past year? To name a few:

- The bi-national prevocational forum which we hosted in Adelaide. We had more than 400 participants, a full program and a most successful forum. My special thanks to the SA MET team for all the excellent work they did in making this meeting such a success.
- Publishing a guide to bullying and harassment, an operational manual to enable junior doctors to be equipped to know the pathways and procedures should they be needed, and an encouragement to all to treat each other with courtesy and respect at all times.
- Undertaking many accreditation visits and recommendations to better support medical education in our LHNs.
- Making active contributions to the mandated training requirements across SA Health. We will see the benefits of this in the next year.
- Making multiple contributions to the new national prevocational training framework, due to be implemented in 2024. The LHNs will be aware that a number of us have diligently visited all the LHN Boards and Executive Officers to discuss with them the new framework and the requirements for 2024 and beyond. I have been very encouraged by the positive approach from all the LHNs. All want to see their junior doctors supported and well trained.

We are looking forward to hosting the inaugural South Australian Prevocational Medical Excellence Awards to be held 22 September 2023. This will be a great opportunity to showcase and celebrate the excellence in medical education and training across the State.

Thanks also to Penny Boumelha, our outgoing Chair of the Accreditation committee. It is wonderful to welcome Anthony Llewellyn, our new Accreditation Chair. Anthony lives in NSW, is a very experienced medical educator, including being a psychiatrist in practice.

As we embrace the coming year, the biggest challenge will be the new training program for PGY1s. This is a challenge but more importantly, opportunity, opportunity to strengthen and improve what we already do well.

Overview: about the agency

Our strategic focus

Our Purpose	The SA MET Health Advisory Council (the Advisory Council) works towards improving the quality of education, training and welfare for trainee medical officers and undertaking the accreditation and monitoring of postgraduate training posts in South Australia. The structure of the Advisory Council gives it integrating operational and advisory responsibilities for post-graduate medical training. It also provides the ability for the Advisory Council to represent all phases of postgraduate medical education including intern and subsequent prevocational and vocational training. The Advisory Council structure enables rapid and effective integration of on-going developments in education and training, at both local and national levels. In addition, the structure supports a range of objectives and targets from South Australia's Strategic Plan by moving South Australia's health reform agenda forward and being proactive about health workforce needs. The Advisory Council Rules are available: https://www.samet.org.au/committees-and-forums/sa-met-health- advisory-council/sa-met-health-advisory-council-functions/
Our Vision	Enabling medical professionals to provide high quality patient care through integrated, coordinated and structured medical education and training.

Agency specific objectives and performance

Agency objectives	Indicators	Performance
Transfer of Information Guideline	Ongoing.	The SA MET Education Committee has been actively engaged in reviewing and updating the Transfer of Information Guideline. The guideline assists medical graduates transition into internships successfully.
		The SA MET Education Committee continues to collaborate with Local Health Networks (LHNs) and Universities to support the transition of new medical graduates into the workplace.
		LHN and University stakeholders have provided anecdotal feedback, of the quality and usefulness of the Transfer of Information Guideline.
SA Medical Education Interest Group.	Ongoing.	The aim of the SA Medical Education Interest Group (SAMEIG) workshop is to provide an opportunity for attendees to discuss set key objectives and create a supportive and active community who are passionate and skilled in medical education.

		In 2023, SAMEIG held two successful workshops in March and June. The March workshop centred around the National Framework for Prevocational Medical Training being implemented for Postgraduate Year 1 (PGY1) Trainee Medical Officers (TMOs) in 2024 and Entrustable Professional Activities (EPAs). The June workshop provided an opportunity for collaboration with colleagues to strengthen the complex and varied modalities of Aboriginal Health and integration of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Cultural Training into prevocational medical education. The workshop showcased NALHN's Aboriginal Health Internship program being piloted in 2023.
South	In	SAMEIG has been involved in the planning and Awards		There are two categories for these awards, Debrief of Challenging Cases and Team Culture and Support.

		<ul> <li>The Support and Debrief of Challenging Cases award recognises excellence in the provision of support and debrief for prevocational doctors.</li> </ul>
		<ul> <li>The Team Culture award recognises excellence in the provision of a supportive learning environment for prevocational doctors, by the wider interprofessional team.</li> </ul>
		The SA MET Unit worked with the SA MET Education Committee Chair to ensure that appropriate consideration was given to the composition of the judging panel ensuring that appropriate representation of those involved in prevocational medical education in South Australia.
		With the exception of the SA MET Unit Health Advisory Council Presiding Member and Education Committee Chair, the judging panel was appointed through an expression of interest process.

Group.		The MTAG is currently seeking advice from doctors on the mandatory training modules which should be included in the framework and will then seek further advice on the content and format of individual modules. This advice will be sought from the Health Advisory Council committees, in particular the Education and Doctors in Training Committees.
Australian Medical Council (AMC) National Framework for Prevocational Medical Training.	In progress.	The AMC Framework Implementation Steering Committee was established in 2022, with the purpose of providing harmonisation and support to the LHNs on the implementation of the Australian Medical Council National Framework for Prevocational Medical Training Review from a Statewide perspective. The AMC Framework Implementation Steering Committee has actively engaged with the AMC to provide valuable advice on the development of the e-portfolio system and facilitating implementation for interns and PGY2 TMOs. The AMC Framework will be implemented for PGY1s (Interns) in 2024 and PGY2s in 2025. The revised National Framework will include a record of learning, which is captured in an e- portfolio, expected to be implemented in 2025 https://www.amc.org.au/accreditation-and- recognition/assessment-accreditation-prevocational- phase-medical-education/national-framework-for- prevocational-medical-training/
SA MET Accreditation Authority Review.	In progress.	<ul> <li>The SA MET Unit is accredited as an Intern Accreditation Authority by the Australian Medical Council (AMC).</li> <li>The AMC completed an assessment of the SA MET's intern accreditation authority work in July 2022.</li> <li>The AMC Directors at their 10 August 2023 meeting resolved: <ul> <li>The SA MET Unit substantially meets the domains for assessing accreditation authorities,</li> <li>The SA MET Unit be accredited as an intern training accreditation authority until 31 March</li> </ul> </li> </ul>

		2028, subject to satisfactory annual monitoring submission reports to the AMC.
		The SA MET Accreditation Team successfully completed the accreditation report for three local health networks and one new unit. As a result, two of these local health networks have been re-accredited until 2026, while another one achieved inaugural provisional accreditation for 14 PGY2+ Posts.
		In 2023, the accreditation team has completed one major LHN re-accreditation visit and have 3 LHN visits scheduled for August.
Accreditation Committee.	In progress.	The SA MET Accreditation Committee has appointed a new chair that will enhance our strategic leadership approach and offers a fresh perspective as we navigate the implementation of the AMC National Framework for Prevocational Training.
Strategic evaluation		The SA MET Accreditation Committee are in process of reviewing accreditation policies, guidelines and templates to support the transition to the AMC National Framework for Prevocational Medical Training.
Accreditation Committee Working Group	In progress.	In October 2022, the Accreditation Committee agreed to establish the SA MET Accreditation Committee Working Group to provide oversight to all aspects of the implementation of the AMC's National Framework for Prevocational Medical Training and support prevocational accreditation activities within the LHNs.
		The SA MET Accreditation Committee Working Group, through the Chair, will provide reports on progress to the SA MET Accreditation Committee and the SA MET Health Advisory Council.
		The SA MET Accreditation Committee Working Group will provide their expert knowledge, advice, leadership and guidance on the implementation of the AMCs National Standards and requirements for prevocational (PGY1 and PGY2) training programs and terms.
		The SA MET Accreditation Committee Working Group will lead the review and implementation of the prevocational accreditation activities, operational functions, policies and procedures to ensure compliance against the AMC National Framework for Prevocational Medical Training.

2022-23 ANNUAL REPORT for the South Australian Medical Education and Training Health Advisory Council

SA MET Accreditation Standards review.	In progress.	In line with the AMC National Framework for Prevocational Medical Training Review, the SA MET Health Advisory Council is reviewing the SA MET Accreditation Standards.
Accreditation of Intern Training.	Rated effective.	Accreditation processes are completed in required timelines and in line with policy and national requirements.
		https://www.samet.org.au/prevocationalaccreditation/ evaluation/
Ahpra Medical Training Survey	Annual basis.	The Medical Training Survey (MTS) is a national, profession-wide survey of all doctors in training in Australia. It is a confidential way to get national, comparative, profession-wide data to strengthen medical training in Australia.
		The Advisory Council has been actively involved in promoting the MTS to all doctors in training, and once the reports are released, collating individual LHN data and providing LHN specific reports. This data is then summarised into areas of excellence and areas of improvement for medical education and training.

Accreditation Committee Terms of Reference.	Annual basis.	The terms of reference are currently under review. Link Accreditation Committee https://www.samet.org.au/about/accreditation- committee/
Preventing and Responding to Bullying, Harassment and Discrimination Guidelines.	Distributed.	Preventing and responding to workplace bullying, harassment and discrimination guide intends to support TMOs and Prevocational Trainee Supervisors and Managers to prevent and respond to workplace bullying, harassment and discrimination in the workplace, by providing resources and supports.
		The distribution of the guide to LHNs and TMOs was successful, and the feedback received to date has been overwhelmingly positive. TMOs and LHNs found the guide to be highly useful.

2022-23 ANNUAL REPORT for the South Australian Medical Education and Training Health Advisory Council

ANZ Prevocational Medical Education Forum 2022.	Finalised.	The Advisory Council hosted the ANZ Prevocational Medical Education Forum in Adelaide, 20 - 23 November 2022. The key aims of the Forum were to bring current challenges in medical training to the spotlight with a mixture of robust discussions on many issues affecting medical education and training. The program incorporated presentations from key-note speakers, abstract reviewed sessions and workshops, and a series of panel discussions to round off each day's learnings.
